

The fragrant summer-time has arrived, the time when society discards the formal lines of absolute conventionality and, in its stead, admits of a vista of trailing-room and hall, appears in pretty white gowns and converts piazzas into summer parlors, where merry gossip and light laughter are the order of the hour.

When diversion is needed it is easily found. The possibilities of Hermitage and Lakeside Country Clubs are infinite in the attractions they offer to lovers of evening strolls, coolness, air sweet with the scent of flowers, and gay little suppers before the return hour is struck.

Does one desire to go to the play? The Academy of Music, the Colonial, and other theatres, are open to parties of friends who enjoy everything most in each other's company. Should one prefer a car-party, Idlewood and Forest Hill, or Chilmoraz Park, offer everything in the way of objective points that can be desired.

Moonlight excursions down the river to Dutch Gap, with music and dancing, are most alluring to young people, who turn naturally to whatever promises a change in the way of fun and frolic.

Taking everything into consideration, the summer girl in Richmond is not a young woman to be pitied. While others are accumulating experiences at the seashore or mountain hotel, traveling abroad or in camping and house parties, she also has her opportunities.

When twilight comes, the hour when humanity relaxes and grows social, these opportunities are neither few nor small. Homeless bachelors, wandering disconsolately about, fall easy victims to the pretty coquettish of the summer girl, to her crisp neatness and trimness, to her softly waved hair, into the curls of which a red rose is gathered to match the ash and tie, that give a certain distinction to the whiteness of her filmy summer gown.

The summer girl is gaily responsive and easily amused. Her smiles and her prattle are delightful after the cares and annoyances of the day, and, as a companion she excels. She is discreet as a listener, and can laugh heartily at a joke, even though it may not be told at first hand. She holds her little court around her with the grace and ease of the ladies of old to whom troubadours sang their songs of love, or as the grand dames of the Faubourg Saint Germain, whose day and generation have passed.

The triumph of the summer girl will pass also. Perhaps that is why it is so sweet while it lasts. For the human fancy is most surely enmeshed where it needs to linger transiently, and where its bondage is not limited by time or duty.

After a while the summer girl's rival, the human swallow that has been sitting here and there, will win a home. Then the homeless bachelor will come into his kingdom again and the homage he has been paying the home-keeping feminine will be laid upon another's shrine.

The transferred homage, however, will cause no heartaches. The summer girl is wise in her day and generation, and knows quite well when her reign is over. She has made the most of it, and, like a true philosopher, she will wave it a smiling adieu.

Pollard-Wilcox.

One of the most interesting of June weddings will be celebrated in St. Paul's Episcopal Church Tuesday afternoon, June 30th, when Miss Sherard Warren Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus C. Wilcox, will be given in marriage to Mr. James Jeffries Pollard, the ceremony to be performed at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Wilcox has been a most admired figure in Richmond society since her entrance into it, and her marriage to a gentleman who is a member of its clubs and successful in its business life will be a fashionable and largely attended occasion.

Phillips-Moore.

The wedding of Miss Alice Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Staunton Moore, to Mr. William Lazenby Phillips, son of Mr. Charlotte J. Phillips, of Newark, N. J., will be celebrated at 7:30 P. M. June 29th, at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 2309 East Broad Street, the Rev. James B. Webster, of Vermont, officiating.

The house will be handsomely decorated with roses, smilax, candelabra and pink candles. Miss Lucy Owens, the bride's cousin, will direct the music.

The bride will be attended by Miss Anne Elizabeth Andrews, her maid of honor. Mr. William Ellison Harvey will be the best man. Little Miss Alice and Jennie Gary, Minnie Moore and Anne Gentry will hold the ribbons, and Miss Louise Moore will bear the ring on a white satin cushion. Messrs. Percy Lawrence and Henry Talman Moore will officiate as groomsmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will spend their honeymoon at Natural Bridge and Peaks of Otter, Va., and will reside at Barton Heights after July 10th.

At Virginia Seashore.

A delightful leap year german has been recently given by the young ladies in the pavilion at Virginia Beach. Favors were dispensed and delightful refreshments served. Mrs. John Jackson, of Richmond, one of the chaperons, presided at the punch bowl.

The nightly dances are well attended, and frequent excursions render the beach season unusually gay.

At the Pollock Cottage are Mrs. Riley and Mrs. Henry Riley, Mrs. Richard Meade and family, of Richmond. Miss Lucy Christian has returned to Richmond after a week spent at this cottage. Miss Helen Fisher, of Ginter Park, who has been the guest of Mrs. George Meredith, at Virginia Beach, has returned home.

Mrs. Allen and her sister, Miss Augusta Yates, of Danville, are at Dr. Morrison's apartment, at Mrs. Watson, of Pulaski, is visiting Miss Grace Morrison.

Colonel Stacy C. James, Miss Elizabeth Minor, Miss Louise Fontaine and Miss Walbrook, of the University of Virginia, are at the Pollock Cottage. So are Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Water, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Carter, of Norfolk, and Dr. and Mrs. Evans, of South Carolina. Mrs. Hugh Morrison and little daughter are guests of Mrs. George Meredith. Dr. Meredith is spending a few days in Richmond.

Major R. M. Doswell, Mrs. Ida W. Ellerson, Mrs. Eugene C. Masie and two children, of Richmond, are at the Gardner Cottage, otherwise well filled with Virginia, Northern, Southern and Western guests. The Pannell Cottage and the Arlington are also well filled. Mrs. D. D. Whitehead and children and Mrs. Margaret, of Richmond, of Richmond, being in the latter house.

Anderson-Lewis.

A beautiful church wedding of special interest to Gloucester county

Louise Spratley, entered, wearing a pink gown and carrying pink sweet peas. She was followed by the bride and groom, who entered together, and passing on to the altar, were married by the Rev. Samuel Hatcher, of Farmville Methodist Church. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. W. C. Cobb, of Sussex county, wore a handsome suit of tan Rajah cloth, and carried Bride roses.

The groom is a young physician of Glatto, W. Va. Many handsome wedding gifts were received.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. E. V. Clements, brother of the groom; Miss Louise Spratley, of Petersburg; Miss Mattie Walker, of Richmond; Mrs. C. W. Peables, of Chester, Va.

To Attend Finals.

Miss Ruth Read Cunningham, who has been spending the spring and summer with Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cunningham in Georgia, and enjoying a delightful visit to Miss Elizabeth Williamson in Macon, Ga., left last week with a party of her school and fraternity mates to attend the finals at Lucy Cobb Institute and the Georgia University.

Returning, they will join Miss Elizabeth Baldwin's house party at Cuthbert, Ga.

Goes Abroad.

Miss Lucy Clair Atkinson and Judge Sidney J. Dudley, whose marriage will be celebrated in St. Peter's Church at 6 P. M. July 13th, will leave the same evening for New York and will sail Wednesday, July 15th, by the Carpathia for the south of Europe. They will travel for some weeks in Italy and elsewhere on the continent of Europe, and will then tour the British Isles, returning to Richmond about the latter part of September.

Landers-Williams.

The wedding of Miss Annie Madeline Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams, to Mr. George Henry Landers was celebrated at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in St. Patrick's Church, the Rev. H. J. McKeeffey officiating.

The altars were artistically decorated with palms, ferns and smilax, and the room was filled with soft light upon the bridal party. Miss Loretta Boyce played the wedding marches, and, during the ceremony, "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms."

Little Louise Williams, sister of the bride, and Master Thomas Cox, Jr., bore the ring hidden among white roses on a silver tray.

The bride entered with her sister, Miss Margaret Mary Williams; the groom with his brother, Mr. Thomas M. Landers. Other attendants were Messrs. J. E. Sheridan, L. G. Redd, J. E. Donohoe and O. E. Lehmann.

The bride was attended in white satin over tulle, with trimmings of lace and pearls. Her veil was caught with lilies of the valley. Her flowers were lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern. The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Mary Williams, wore a white lingerie gown, trimmed in baby Irish lace, and a white picture hat. She carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations.

A reception was tendered the bridal party and relatives Tuesday evening by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams, at their residence, on Libby Hill Park. Parties were handsomely decorated. Many bride gifts of cut glass, silver and bric-a-brac were shown, among them a handsome mahogany library table from the firm of O. E. Lehmann, of which the groom is an employee.

Mr. Landers is the son of Mr. Thomas M. Landers and a very popular young man.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams, and is a great favorite in the younger Church Hill set.

The honeymoon will be spent in New York, Niagara Falls and Boston. After July 10th Mr. and Mrs. Landers will be home to their friends at No. 2322 East Franklin Street.

Ten at Woman's Club.

Tea will be served to-morrow afternoon at the Woman's Club, where the doors and windows are now thrown wide and flowers are in sweetest and fullest bloom.

These charming and informal gatherings have been most delightful from a social standpoint throughout June, esteemed by many club members as offering rare opportunity for pleasant and un hindered intercourse around the tea table.

The teas will be discontinued early in July.

MacCullen-Forbes.

The wedding of Miss Priscilla Matilda Forbes to Mr. Allen MacCullen, of New York, was celebrated in the home of the bride's parents Wednesday, June 24th, at 3 P. M., the Rev. Dr. Kelly, of Broad Street, M. E. Church, officiating. Only the immediate relatives were present.

Miss Forbes is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Howard Forbes, of this city, and the granddaughter of the late Rev. W. B. MacGillivray. Mr. MacCullen is now located in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. MacCullen left for New York, and after visiting several Northern cities they will go in camp at Avenel, L. I., where Mr. MacCullen's parents are spending the summer. They will make their home in Washington.

Personal Mention.

Miss Katie Taylor is spending some time at the Brunswick Inn, Waynesboro.

Mr. Edwin P. Sadtler, Jr., is spending the summer at Buckroe Beach.

Miss Kilburey Barret, of Louisa, is the guest of Miss Watson.

Mr. Harry Jones, of the Richmond College, will spend his vacation at his home, in Newport News.

Miss William Chapman Crutchefield, at the guest of Miss Paula Burke, of Appomattox, on her return from the V. P. I. finals.

Mr. William Brockenborough Lamb, of the University of Virginia, is visiting Mr. Alfred Jones, of Fredericksburg. Mr. Lamb has recently been appointed an assistant to Professor Minor in the law department of the university.

Miss Sallie Moncre is visiting her

Sale Starts
Monday
at 9 A. M.

Kaufmann & Co

Sale Starts
Monday
at 9 A. M.

Ostrich Plumes

ECONOMY SALE

$12,000 Worth of OSTRICH PLUMES
at 60c on the Dollar

Most Tremendous
Ostrich Plume Bargains
EVER OFFERED

Twelve thousand dollars worth of Ostrich plumes we've fortunately secured for this week at half the regular prices. It will pay you to buy several years' supply whether you need plumes or not. We want everybody to call on us, and we guarantee that you will be more than surprised when you see the Ostrich Feathers we are offering for less money than you ever saw them before here or elsewhere.

MAIL ORDERS FILLED } ALL SIZES AND COLORS ARE INCLUDED. VALUES AND } Phone ORDERS FILLED
Order by Number } SELLING PRICES ARE AS FOLLOWS: } Order by Number

No. 300. Black and Colored Tips, 3 in bunch, $1 kind,	49c	No. 64. White only, $5.50 kind,	$4.29	No. 121. Black and White and Colors, $4.98 kind,	$3.98
No. 51. White and Black, $1.25 kind,	75c	No. 65. White only, $7.50 kind,	$5.00	No. 124. Black and White and Colors, $9.50 kind,	$7.25
No. 52. White only, $1.62 kind,	$1.12	No. 304. Black and White and Colors, $3.50 kind,	$2.29	No. 125. White and Black only, $10.98 kind,	$8.75
No. 53. Black only, $1.98 kind,	$1.39	No. 101. Black and White and Colors, $3.98 kind,	$2.48	No. 126. White and Col- ors, $15 kind,	$9.48
No. 60. White only, $2.25 kind,	$1.62	No. 105. Black and White and Colors, $5.98 kind,	$4.69	No. 16XX. Willow Plumes, $25 kind,	$18.00
No. 62. White only, $3.75 kind,	$2.69	No. 106. Black and White and Colors, $8.50 kind,	$6.48	SPECIAL. White and Black,	$5.00
No. 63. White only, $4.50 kind,	$3.48			SPECIAL. $50 Plume,	$29.50

Mighty Trimmed Hats

At sharp 9 o'clock on MONDAY MORNING we will place on sale 135 Trimmed Hats. This sale will long linger in your memory as the greatest of its kind ever held in Richmond. It is our intention to dispose of this entire lot, if possible, in one day. At any rate, if the women are alive to bargains, there will be no question about our accomplishing this object.

Former prices were $10, $9, $8, $7.50, $6.75, $5, your choice

$3.48

The Kaufmann's Millinery store has no competition along the lines of beauty, for we stop at nothing to provide the most fashionable millinery. The Hats then, are just such as will win the approval of every woman who appreciates style and good taste.

The early buyer gets the best bargains. Come and see us if only for curiosity's sake.

Flower Specials.

On Sale To-Morrow.

Extra Large Cluster of Roses and Lilies; regu- lar $2.00 Flowers; special, SPECIAL—Twin Rose and Fo- liage, extra large size pink, tea, red and white; good value; only few left over	88c 29c 62c	Beautiful Imported Silk Velvet Pansies, in rich shades of purple and yellow; 75c Flower; to-morrow	29c
		Odds and ends of Assorted Flowers, values up to 50c; all new colorings and de- signs; special	10c

Special Sale Below Makers' Cost Untrimmed Leghorns.

We've to dozen of them for to-morrow only. A prominent maker closed out this entire stock to us at a terrific loss—a transaction which brings you these beautiful Hats at prices less than actual cost of production.

Regular $3 Hats, To-Morrow,

$1

Only One to a Customer.

the guest of Miss Richardson, on Wilson Avenue, South Boston.

Mr. Beverly Lamb, son of Congressman John Lamb, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. C. Hill, of Scottsville.

Miss Mary Traylor, who has been the guest of Miss Nell Christian, on West Avenue, has returned to her home in Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. W. W. Hite, of Louisville, Ky., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Pace, has returned to his home.

Mr. Samuel Graham Griggs left on Friday for Amelia Courthouse, where he will spend the rest of the summer.

Mr. Julian T. Baber, who has been the guest of Dr. Trevillian, on South Third Street, has returned to his home, at Pocahontas.

Mrs. Dr. Hugh Taylor and the Misses Taylor, who have been spending some time at Cape Henry, have returned to the city.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Dobert, who has been the guest of Miss Cary Valentine, has left for Sabot Hall.

Henry L. Pelouze Fuller leaves on Wednesday to enter the Culver Naval and Cavalry Summer School at Culver,

Indiana. In September he will accompany the cadets on their cruise on the Great Lakes.

Mrs. Edward R. Fuller and daughter,
Isabel, will spend the summer on Lake Maxinkuckee, Ind.

Mrs. Otto Theodore Hess and son, her mother, Mrs. Henningham Scott Spillman, and her sister, Miss Sue Spil-man, who have been in Warrenton, will join Mr. John Spillman later in the summer, to spend several months on the Maine coast.

Miss Ruby L. Powell is visiting the Misses Cook and Steger, in Pelerburg.

Mrs. Thomas Brander is spending some time at Atlantic City, N. J.

Bill's Signature.

Mrs. Velum—Oh, dear! I hardly know how to tell you, but the baby somehow got hold of a fountain pen and your first letter.

Mr. Velum—I see; but don't let it worry you. It really enhances the value of the book. I'll dispose of it as an autograph copy.—Puck.

HARDENS PRO-PHY-TOL CLEANS TEETH

Carloads of "Good Luck"

Baking Powder are shipped daily from Richmond.
Carloads are sold to Richmond housekeepers every month

Good Luck Baking Powder

Is the favorite with those who bake—it is pure, effective, wholesome. AT YOUR DEALERS.

The Southern Mfg. Co., Richmond, Va.

